

FACA Policy Statement

Breed-Specific Legislation

FACA is opposed to any rules, legislation, or special conditions imposed solely because of the breed of an animal. Studies show that it is behavior, owner training, abuse and other factors that contribute to situations that might require regulatory legislation, and not the breed of the animal.

Last Revised: June 2013