

FACA Policy Statement

Controlled Substances

Controlled substances are essential to the humane operation of animal control and protection agencies, for pain control, restraint, capture, anesthesia, and humane euthanasia of animals in our care.

Because of the potential of theft or abuse of these controlled substances, each organization has a responsibility to establish adequate controls, policies and procedures to ensure compliance with all laws and regulations.

Last Revised: June 2013