

Florida Animal Control Association's 2022 Educational Conference

March 3 – 5, 2022 • The Florida Hotel & Conference Center, Orlando, FL

2022 Educational Conference

We have put together an educational conference that will bring together animal control officers, animal care staff, shelter managers, veterinarians, veterinary technicians, agency heads, and other key decision makers from across the State of Florida. Those in attendance will represent animal agencies of all sizes, from both government and private sectors.

This annual event has become the best opportunity for local animal welfare professionals to learn, network, and discover new methods for improving their ability to service the public and the animals.

Thinking about sponsoring or exhibiting? It's an excellent idea! As a sponsor, you will benefit from access to a captive audience of professionals directly involved in animal welfare. With our growing annual attendance from new and returning attendees, you will have the chance to gain new clients and customers while supporting the ongoing training and education of the animal care and control profession.

By sponsoring the Conference, you will:

- Have a targeted showcase for your products and/or services.
- Build on your company's brand recognition, strategically positioning your offerings with primary purchasers and decision makers.
- Strengthen your existing relationships with shelters and other advocacy organizations while adding to your client list.
- Learn what else is going on in animal sheltering and animal law enforcement, keeping yourself knowledgeable about the business.

Sponsorship Levels

This year, we've updated our sponsorship levels to accommodate a variety of budgets and offer you the best possible choices in promoting your products and services. We have assembled sponsorship packages designed to give you maximum exposure, but we still have our traditional à la carte options as well.

Check out the table below, which describes our four most popular sponsorship packages, and give us a call at 786-505-FACA (3222) to discuss which one is right for your organization.
